

Condé Nast

Market: Arts and Media Location: New York
Related Products: Highline Fifty conference table, Custom, Highline Twenty-Five

In a transformational design and fit-out over 25 floors of 1 World Trade Center, Condé Nast's new headquarters celebrate the company's diverse brands while helping it transition to a high-performance and more fluid work process. An elegant custom reception desk, featuring clean lines and materials, in a multi-functional conference center, displays the breadth of DatesWeiser capabilities and materials.

Top: Conference table: East Indian laurel veneer with high gloss polyester top, with center field technology; matching Highline Twenty-Five credenza with black back painted glass serving top and oil rubbed bronze legs. Left: Highline Fifty's inspired custom oval table with continuous hatch doors and microphone holes, flat cut larch veneer slab top, and oil rubbed bronze metal edge, matching Highline Twenty-Five credenza with coco etched back painted glass and drop-through trash. Magazine Floor: Reception center with Glacier White Corian® panels and black marble interaction counter, shown right.

DATESWEISER

datesweiser.com

Condé Nast

Market: Arts and Media Location: New York

Related Products: Highline Fifty conference table, Custom, Highline Twenty-Five

Executive Floors: Marble table with light beige lacquer hatch doors and hatch door and center field technology; Highline Twenty-Five credenza in light beige lacquer with oil rubbed bronze metal legs, featuring matching lacquer doors and drawer fronts and coco back painted etched glass top.