

Innovation, versatility, and bold design are the operative words for the collaborative and open-plan workspaces at the New York office of Paul Hastings, a global law firm. DatesWeiser conference and meeting tables and credenzas are integral to supporting the firm's current and future needs.

Top: Custom conference table with continuous base and back-painted glass top, stainless steel power berm and edge, with perforated white leather top. A live wall frames a collaborative space featuring bar height tables along the windows and a Highline Fifty meeting table with integrated technology drawers.