

The Park Avenue offices of this multinational banking and financial firm salute its venerable history and French heritage while embracing a nimble, forward-thinking design befitting a complex, ever-changing economy. Highline conference tables in rich, tactile materials are loaded with technology. Custom executive, administrative and reception areas distinguish the space.

Top: Highline dining table with Calacatta gold top, polished chrome base and trim. Right: Custom administrative center, plain-sliced white oak veneer, black polyester case, transaction counter and customized work wall. Highline conference table with Calacatta gold top, polished chrome base and table top technology with microphones, shown left.