

With fourteen offices in twelve countries, Advent International is one of the largest, most experienced global private equity firms. Their newly renovated headquarters required an interior design reflecting both their distinguished company culture and historic location in Boston. Modern, distinct lines combined with the richness of mixed materials, reflect the weighty prominence of their brand.

Top: Custom Rectangular Highline Fifty Conference Table, Silver Brown Wave stone layered top polished chrome metal edge and custom tapered base, power/ data access through table top with matching stone hatch lids, microphone access. Bottom: Custom reception desk, Cristallo Extra stone surround wall with mitered corners, work surfaces and lower transaction ledge in plain- sliced walnut and polished chrome Highline edge.

Top left: Custom Highline Fifty Conference Table, Arabescato Grigio Oroboico stone layered top with jet black polyester lower layer, polished chrome metal edge and custom tapered base, power/ data access through table top with matching stone hatch lids. Top right: power/ data access through table top with matching hatch lid, plain sliced walnut. Bottom: Custom Highline Fifty Conference Table, plain- sliced walnut slab top, polished chrome metal edge and tapered base: Highline Twenty- Five Credenza, dark brown polyester case, Calacatta gold marble top, polished chrome legs and pulls. Images ©2018 Neil Alexander.